My dear Mr. Roe:

Just to give you the telephone number of the College Entrance Examination Board - Cathedral 0228. They are not in the telephone book and Information cannot give out the number.

If you will call me some morning I can go up to be with you from one o'clock on.

Very sincerely

February 16th, 1930

Dear Mr. Noe;

Acting on your suggestion on my leaving you last Aprilthat when February came and I had not found a permanent position I should give you "a ring".

I have been fortunate in getting temporary work, but I would like something I can depend upon, and wonder if you have a place for me?

Very sincerely

Evelina Tripp

Dear Miss Tripp:

Responding to your note of February 16th, I am under the necessity of advising you that we have nothing to offer you at the present time. We are very glad that you have work and hope that this will continue.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
